

Blue Snowball Mic Quick Reference Guide

Record settings on back of Blue Snowball

Position 1 – For single user voice/instrument recording

Position 2 – For extra loud voices/instruments that may cause distortion

Position 3 – For group of voices or instruments

Windows XP computer Setup:

1. Connect mic to computer with USB cable
2. Wait for mic drivers to install
3. Click Start and choose Control Panel
4. Double-click the Sounds and Devices icon
5. Click the Audio tab
6. Change the Sound Recording Default Device to Blue Snowball
7. Click Volume and raise the volume level
8. Close the window
9. Click the Voice tab
10. Change the Voice Recording Default Device to Blue Snowball
11. Click Volume and raise the volume level
12. Click Apply or OK
13. In Audacity, click Edit from the menu and choose Preferences
14. Change the recording device to Blue Snowball
15. Click OK

Apple OSX Computer Setup:

1. Click System Preferences
2. Click the Sound icon
3. Click the Input tab
4. Under Choose a Device, click Blue Snowball
5. Increase the input volume
6. Close the window
7. In Garageband click the Info button
8. Select channel 1 mono in the Input field
9. Click Garageband from the menu and choose Preferences
10. Click the Input tab
11. Choose Blue Snowball as the Input device.
12. Click OK or Save