The ReadyNAS Family of Storage products, store, share, and protect your most valuable digital assets.

ReadyNAS®

The Perfect Storage Solution for Your Home

READYNAS DUO

- Directly streams music, photos and video to existing network media players without a computer
- Creates a personal webpage to easily share photos with friends and family

Provides extra storage that can be conveniently shared with all your computers

The ReadyNAS Duo is perfect for homes with more than one computer. Unlike a USB drive, the ReadyNAS connects to the network and is simultaneously accessible via all connected Windows or Macintosh computers.

Access stored content anywhere via the Internet

If there is a broadband Internet connection and a home router, the ReadyNAS can be set up to provide secure access to all the stored files remotely via the Internet.

Optional "spare" hard drive protects against drive failure by making a duplicate copy of all your data

For added protection of stored data, an optional second hard disk drive can be installed. The spare hard drive will keep an extra copy of all the data and instantly take over if the first hard drive should fail.
