

HM1900 Bluetooth® Headset

SPECIFICATION SHEET

cultured & refined

stylish, capable and well spoken

The stylish and feature-packed HM1900 is a combination of modern design, exceptional call quality, and convenient multilingual interaction. Capable of both English and Spanish voice prompts, this sleek, brushed metal-look headset not only fits multiple language demographics, but boasts a feature list that makes it a prime choice for nearly any customer – from value oriented to performance seeker. Along with a broad feature set, the HM1900 was designed with fashion in mind, with its slim profile and attractive simulated brushed metal finish it's certain to get some attention. Add to that noise and echo cancellation and the HM1900 offers call quality rivaling many higher-end headsets – consistently delivering exceptional audio clarity to both caller and recipient.

Along with its multilingual convenience and Single-Mic Noise & Echo Cancellation, the HM1900 also adds a bit of fun – allowing users to stream music through the headset earpiece via A2DP Mono Audio Streaming. This exceptional mix of quality, style and value make the HM1900 a great choice for nearly any customer.
