Features

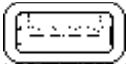

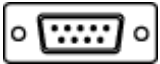

Makes Serial Devices Compatible with USB Computers: The U209-000-R is a simple, portable solution that's perfect for making any serial device compatible with a USB computer. It features a USB A (male) connector that connects to the computer and a DB9 (male) connector for a serial peripheral. Providing data transfer rates to 230 Kbps, it's ideal for use with a wide range of applications including PDAs, digital cameras and more.

No Complicated Set-Up: The U209-000-R gives you plug-and-play convenience. It requires no complicated setup procedures or external power, and lets you hot-swap connected devices at any time with no need to power down the computer. The U209-000-R is compatible with Windows 98, Windows 98 SE, Windows 2000, Windows ME, Windows XP, Vista and Win7. (For Windows 98 and Windows 2000, a mini CD with required drivers is included.)

Double-Shielded Cable: The U209-000-R is manufactured using top-quality materials. The cable is double-shielded with tinned copper braid and aluminum mylar foil shield to eliminate cross-talk and reduce EMI/RFI interference.

Lifetime Product Warranty: When you choose this genuine Tripp Lite cable, you get superior performance plus peace of mind! We're so confident of the quality of the U209-000-R that we warrant it to be free from defects in material and workmanship—for life!
